

The MSH Medical School Hamburg – University of Applied Sciences and Medical University is a private, government accredited university located in Hamburg at the heart of the modern Hafencity. Our research group works in the area of mental health and sport. Main research interests include the psychomental health of athletes as well as the effect of exercise on psychosocial factors in different populations.

At the earliest date possible we are looking for a

Research Assistant

for research projects in the area of sport and health

Job Requirements and Person Specifications:

- Qualified to post graduate level in Psychology, Health-, Education- or Sport Sciences
- Experience in competitive and recreational sports
- Sound knowledge in quantitative and qualitative statistical methodology/analysis
- Excellent written and oral communication skills in English; communication skills in German are desirable
- Interpersonal and communication skills, self-reliance and strong work ethic

This position has a fixed term (12 month), part time contract with the option for extension and pursuing a doctorate degree. Detailed information regarding several of our research projects can be found here: <http://www.medicalschool-hamburg.de/forschung/mental-health-and-sport>

The closing date for applications is Saturday 15th August 2015. Please send your application to astrid.junge@medicalschool-hamburg.de